

Managing Without Ego, Without Time and Without Worries Inspired ideas for unlearning the past and revealing an abundant future!

The time has come to reshape our ideas around management. They may be tried and tested but they are also tired and unsustainable.

- Come and discover why you need to unlearn the past before you can create a new and different future.
- Learn why the past is not the teacher you should rely on.
- Discover the formula: Authenticity + Trust = Freedom
- Learn how to laugh, feel and create abundance every day
- Find out how to manage without time and effort

This event will pave the way for a new model of management that honours both yourself and employees in a way that encourages genuine creativity and loyalty.

The sessions will be facilitated by the partners of “Another Way Of” Productions, Paul Meert, Ben Decock and Tomas Vieira - 3 successful businessmen, teachers and authors, who have come together because of a shared common belief that the time has come for another way of doing business.

We Guarantee you will: -

- Gain insight into your beliefs and behaviour
- Gain insight into how to permanently change and improve your life
- See a different way of managing yourself and others
- Laugh...that's right, Laugh

Event Facilitators and partners of “Another Way Of” Productions:

Paul Meert

After a successful career with Hewlett-Packard, Siemens and Umicore Paul Meert acquired international recognition with TMI in Time and Service Management. At present he is mainly active in self, change, NOW- and NO-time Management.

He is the co-author of the book “The Time of the Customer”, which was translated into French, Dutch, Spanish, Italian and Portuguese. He is the author of “Now-management (Instant Quality Management)”, “NO Time? Live NOW!” and recently published his latest book: “Change in NO time”, already in its third edition and second in French.

Paul Meert has been referred to as the “John Cleese of Flanders” by Trends Magazine. Among his clients are many well known top 500 international companies, as well as the British Medical Association, the Metropole and Scotland Yard. He is also a guest lecturer on strategic internal communication at UHasselt, UAMS, KUL, HUB and Vlerick Management School.

Ben Decock

Ben Decock lives in Belgium, heart of Europe and worked for almost 20 years in the consumer research industry. After his Master in Psychology (University of Louvain) and Management (Vlerick School) he persisted in (re)searching people’s most important motivations. This resulted in a couple of publications and a lot of lectures and workshops. His favourite fields are advertising (how and why does it work), neuroscience (the understanding of consciousness), archetypes (our journey as heroes), religion (different ways how people are looking to be connected) and – surprising – laughter (what do we know about it and how can we do it more). Besides his activity as a professional speaker, he coaches people in their aim to be happy.

Tomas Vieira

International best selling co-author of Take Me To Truth; Undoing the Ego, Tomas has played many roles in life - Café owner at 21 yrs of age, nightclub manager, cosmetic company director, small business advocate and C.E.O. of his region’s regional economic development organization in Australia. Tomas has a life time of working with and within businesses. Since 2007, he has been touring the USA, Canada, England, Australia and now, Belgium and the Netherlands offering “Managing Without Ego©” and “Undoing the Ego©” workshops.
